TO SUCCEED MR. SANGER

ROBERT MACLAY WILL NOT HAVE A CLEAR FIELD FOR THE OFFICE.

R. DUNCAN HARRIS DECLARED TO BE A CAN-BOARD OF EDUCATION-CAUCUSES FOR

THE TWO MEN HELD YESTERDAY. When the sudden death of Adolph L. Sanger, the president of the Board of Education, was an-nounced the impression prevailed that Commis-sioner Robert Maclay would succeed him. Up to Sanger's death it was a foregone conclusion that Mr. Sanger would succeed himself by virtue of his admirable record as the presiding officer. Robert Maclay was Mr. Sanger's opponent for the honor, and when the death of Mr. Sange was announced there was a general feeling in the board that Mr. Maclay was the man for the vacan

Mr. Maclay comes from one of the well-known having served in the Legislature ten years and in William B. Maclay introduced many bills affecting the public schools of New-York, and, although a the public schools of New Johnstones at the time was considered favorable to the Catholies in public schools. Mr. Maclay was severely criticised by his Protestant friends for the per sistency with which he worked for this bill unti it became a law. Since then, however, the justice of the bill has been admitted by his Protestant friends, and it has been a law over forty years, and is the present law governing the religious part of Robert Maclay was born in this city, and received York, and may well be said to be a product of th public-school system of this city. He has been in business here all his life, is intimately acquainted with the needs of the population and is thoroughly familiar with the whole educational system of this city. He has been chairman of several of the mos important committees in the Board of Education As president of the Knickerbocker Ice Company director in the Bowery Savings Bank and in the director in the Bowery Savings Bank and in the People's Bank, and as a trustee of the Knickerbocker Trust Company, he has acquired great financial experience which has made his services on the Board of Education in financial and building matters invaluable. Two years ago he was made chairman of the Building Committee, one of the most responsible on the board. So valuable were his services on this committee that a year ago President Sanger reappointed Mr. Maclay, although he was his rival for the presidency.

All these considerations made Mr. Maclay's election as president of the board next Wednesday seem both highly proper and desirable. The announcement of the candidacy of R. Duncan Harris yesterday, therefore, has occasioned a good deal of surprise. Mr. Harris is a comparatively new member of the board, having been appointed a Commissioner some time after Mr. Maclay was appointed. He was identified with the faction headed by Miles M. O'Brien, and many believe that his candidacy is due to the efforts of Mr. O'Brien.

COMMISSIONER HUBBELL WILL NOT RUN.

COMMISSIONER HUBBELL WILL NOT BUN. It was also rumored yesterday that Commissioner Charles B. Hubbell would be a candidate for th presidency. Mr. Hubbell, at his office in the United Bank Building, Wall-st. and Broadway, yesterday afternoon said to a Tribune reporter: "You may for me that I am not a candidate for president of the Board of Education. Last year some of the Commissioners asked me to become a candidate as Mr. Hunt declined to run again for the position, but when I learned that Robert Maclay was a candidate I promptly declined, for I believed him to be by far the most able and deserving candidate for the position. You can further say that I will support Mr. Maclay this year for president of the Board of Education. He is a man of the broadest views, and is eminently liberal both in religious and in political views."

There were two caucuses held yesterday afternoon by the members of the Board of Education with a view of determining the strength of their respective candidates. One was of the friends of Mr. Maclay, in the parlors of the Reform Club, in Twenty-seventh-st., near Flith-ave., and the other, in the interests of Mr. Harris, at the Murray Hill Hotel. The caucuses were held behind closed doors, and a good deal of secrecy was maintained. A Tribune reporter, however, got a pretty accurate idea of how the capanasses of the two caucuses resulted. The friends of Mr. Maclay found that of the twenty Commissioners now in the board they could count pretty accurately on Commissioners Hubbell, Strauss, Rogers, Van Arsdale, Hunt, Gerard, Holt, Wehrum and Biehville. The friends of Mr. Harris helieve they can call to their aid Commissioners O'Brien, Guggenheimer, Bell, McBarron and Moriarity. Commissioners Knox and Coleman of the Commissioners asked me to become a car

IN A TANGLE OVER VACCINATION.

Some of the homocopathic physicians of Brooklyn preventive of smallpox instead of vaccination have and referred to Hezith Commissioner

Education, and referred to Hezith Commissioner Griffin, He has decided that a certificate of the administration of variolin does not conform to the statutory provision requiring children to present certificates of vaccination.

A number of homocopathic physicians say that their certificates of the administration of variolin have been accepted by school principals without question. Dr. Stuart Close says that he simply fills out the ordinary blanks stating that a child has been properly vaccinated, as he regards the variolin treatment as equivalent if the law is rightly interpreted. He says that the State cannot compel vaccination with vaccine virus when the other treatment is equally good.

Mt. Morris, N. Y., Jan. 6.—At South Greigsville, this county, on the night of November II last, Pasquale Purchro, an Italian, was murdered and robbed of about $1.200, which he carried in a bett. Antonio Renaldi and Michael Dalzoppi, fellow-countrymen of Purchro, were suspected of the crime, but escaped and were not heard of again until recently, when it was learned that they had returned to Italy. Extradition papers are being prepared in Washington, and they will be forwarded to Italy. Purchro was evidently attacked with a razor, as his head was nearly severed from his, body. He fought hard for his life, and inflicted severe injuries on his murderers, who were seen next day skulking across lots, hatless, coatless and limping from the injuries they received in the struggle.

TROLLEY PROPER PREPARING FOR A FIGHT. The Brooklyn City Railroad Company will not put propose to hold off until summer, when it will be easier to strike than in winter. They also seek to have a law bassed requiring a motorman to have had sixty days' experience before he can operate a car, and thus prevent the company from filling their places if the men strike. The company proposes to oppose this, and if the men do not renew the agreement will adopt new measures.
